Covid-19 has ravaged the world, India is no exception. The country has seen a surge in cases, with hospitals and healthcare systems reaching breaking points. The government has taken various measures to tackle the pandemic, including lockdowns, curfews, and vaccination drives. The pandemic has disrupted economic activities, leading to job losses and income declines. The government has announced economic packages to support businesses and industries, and provide relief to those affected. The country is still grappling with the pandemic, and the economic impact is likely to be felt for a long time.

Economic packages are aimed at revitalizing industries and providing relief to those affected. They include financial assistance, tax relief, and changes in regulations to provide a conducive environment for businesses to thrive. The government has emphasized the need for self-reliance and local production to reduce dependence on imports. The initiatives like Aatmanirbhar Bharat and Make in India are examples of this approach. These initiatives aim to make India a hub for manufacturing, with a focus on high-quality, cost-effective products.

The government has also emphasized the need for digitalization and e-commerce to reduce dependence on physical markets and channels. The pandemic has accelerated the adoption of digital payments and online commerce. The government has launched initiatives like UPI and Digital India to promote digital transactions and improve accessibility.

In conclusion, the government’s economic packages and initiatives have been critical in mitigating the impact of the pandemic. The focus on digitalization and self-reliance has set India on a path towards sustainable growth and development. The country’s resilience and adaptability in the face of adversity is a testament to its determination to overcome the challenges posed by the pandemic.
Coronavirus coming from India ‘more lethal’ than those from China, Italy: Nepal PM

KATHMANDU, MAY 20: Nepal Prime Minister K.P. Sharma Oli on Wednesday said that the number of COVID-19 cases in India coming from China is ‘more lethal’ than those coming from China and Italy. Oli informed that over 90 COVID-19 cases in Nepal are coming from India, as the total numbers of COVID-19 cases in the country jumped to 427 on Wednesday.

Speaking about the COVID-19 situation in the parliament on Wednesday, Oli said that Nepal does not need to fasten the containment process as the flow of people from India is not huge due to the lockdown.

"Many coronaviruses entering through India came from India as soon as it did not come from China, as we did not want to stop their flow from the outside," he said. Oli said that the biggest challenge facing the country is the rising number of cases.

He was buried at sea at the British military’s Lowestoft Naval Cemetery.

Biden on Trump hits: ‘I don’t want to get down in the mud’

WASHINGTON: Joe Biden on Tuesday night delivered pointed questions about President Donald Trump’s allegations of improper behaviour during the Obama administration and other conspiracy theorisms pushed by his top allies, saying he doesn’t want to get down in the mud with those guys.

‘They’re not worth my time. They’re not worth my energy. They are not worth my attention,’ Biden, the presumptive Democratic presidential nominee, said Trump is trying to distract voters response to the coronavirus pandemic, which has killed millions around the world. ‘I don’t want to play the blame game,’ Biden said.

‘The attacks come against individuals who have invited me to call them, who have called for an impeachment. Who have made vague threats of retaliation. Who have made repeated but vague statements that there will more deaths from depression, loneliness, suicide because of the coronavirus lockdown.‘...

Coronavirus pandemic has cost Italy 2m jobs

ROME, MAY 20: Italy lost 2 million jobs due to the coronavirus pandemic and lockdowns, a study released Wednesday said.

The report by the Bank of Italy showed that Italy’s labor market suffered a steeper fall than other advanced economies during the pandemic, losing more than 17% of its workforce.

The report said Italian unemployment was at 12% during March, the highest since the 1980s. The report said 17-19% of the workforce had lost their jobs.

The study found that women, young people and workers in the services sector bore the brunt of the pandemic.

Biden says Trump should resign on moral grounds

WASHINGTON: US President Donald Trump said on Wednesday that his administration is planning a $50 billion infrastructure bill, a 5% corporate tax rate and more police funding, while also conceding it was the wrong day to talk about the coronavirus pandemic.

Trump’s campaign has cut back on the president’s travel, focusing instead on the day he was charged with murder, while the administration has been criticized for Botswana’s President Mokgweetsi Masisi said on Wednesday that he was “exceedingly embarrassed” by the way the president had pushed a theory that coronavirus originated in Wuhan.

Masisi said the remarks were “inaccurate” as there was no scientific evidence that the virus originated in China.

N，“It’s beyond believal”

Chinese medicine is good

BEIJING, MAY 20: China’s traditional medicine has been effective in fighting COVID-19, according to experts.

Experts have said that the traditional Chinese medicine can prevent the spread of the disease and alleviate the symptoms.

China has been praised for its response to the coronavirus pandemic, which has killed millions around the world.

Tight lockdowns and a vast testing program have helped China to contain the virus.

But experts say that the country’s success is due to a combination of factors, including a strong healthcare system and a quick response to the pandemic.

Zimbabwe: 7 killed in Vizag gas leaks, fire in Seoul plant

The gas leak in Vizag, India that killed 15 people and injured hundreds was a “natural disaster,” said a senior government official.

The official, who requested anonymity, said the leak was caused by a leak in a pipeline that supplies natural gas to the city.

The leak occurred on Monday and caused a fire that resulted in multiple fatalities.

The leak has caused widespread concern in India, where natural gas is a major source of energy.

Narcotics: 12 residents dead in India as lockdown lifts

More than 12 residents have died in India as lockdowns have lifted in the country.

The deaths have been attributed to the lifting of lockdown restrictions in India, which has been in place since March to contain the spread of COVID-19.

The government has lifted the lockdown in phases, with some areas of the country returning to normal life.

Man sentenced to death in Singapore

A man has been sentenced to death in Singapore for his role in a drug deal, the city-state’s first capital punishment case since 1768.

Genasan Sevajee, 30, was found guilty of conspiring to import and sell 4,452 grams of methamphetamine in Singapore in 2017.

He later pivoted to blaming the virus on China and the World Health Organization, saying the virus originated in Wuhan.

He has also threatened China with “total war,” although he has shown no sign of following through.

The Taliban have launched a new offensive in eastern Afghanistan, officials said Wednesday.

The attack comes just days after the US and the Taliban signed a deal that calls for the withdrawal of US and NATO forces from Afghanistan.

IPL possible with international stars after monsoon: BCCI CEO Rahul Johri

MUMBAI, MAY 20: Rahul Johri, CEO of the Indian Premier League, has confirmed what this paper recently revealed — that he is prepared to go to the Indian Premier League (IPL) and the World Cup to bring international players after the monsoon.

“The IPL is one of the greatest sport properties which will draw the best talent that is available and the fans will love it,” said Johri at the TCM Sports Hotel tenbrosen after a meeting with the head of national sports, Lal Bahadur Shastri.

“Most of the players who are playing in the IPL come from a nation and now they can be part of another nation and we can start playing with the best talent of the world,” he added.

Speaking on this issue, he said: “IPL is a great platform for all the teams to participate and we have been exploring ways to bring international players in the IPL once the monsoon is over.”

Johri said that the BCCI will be looking at the situation closely and will take a decision on the matter as soon as the monsoon is over.

New Delhi, May 20: With the announcement of the 12th Standard, the IPL is expected to bring a new wave of talent to the Indian Premier League (IPL).
